

Clos Du Val 2006 Chardonnay

April 9, 2008

Label to look for

Clos Du Val Chardonnay; Napa Valley-Carneros, 2006. While chardonnay often is criticized for having an excessive oak component, some producers feature unoaked chardonnay as a selling point. But there are still some who do it right, and this Clos Du Val Chardonnay provides a welcome balance of citrus and pear with notes of vanilla from toasted oak. It will restore your faith in California chardonnay!
